since the inception of the war on terror israel has become increasingly important to western imperial strategy and ever more aggressive in its policies towards the palestinians a key ideological weapon in this development is the cynical and unjustified accusation of anti semitism to silence protest and dissent for historical reasons this tactic has been deployed most forcefully in france and in the first of the two essays in this book french writers alain badiou and eric hazan demolish the anti semitism is everywhere claim used to bludgeon critics of the israeli state and those who stand in solidarity with the banlieue youth in the philo semitic reaction ivan segr undertakes a meticulous deconstruction of a rampant reactionary trend that identifies jewish interests with the democratic west segr s aim is to uphold a universalist position and to defend jewish tradition from zionist ideological distortion his premise is that civilizations have life spans and the western civilization that produced america and europe has been replaced in our lifetime and before our very eyes to people whose minds were made by the west the civilization we now find ourselves in often feels wrong evil even but we also find ourselves feeling oddly affectionate toward this strange new world and the more time that passes the more normal the new civ gets to feel we sometimes have to pinch ourselves to remember that society once had roots in a universe that knew something of moral absolutes where the horrible behaviors we now read about in every morning newspaper were so rare that one such event in a year would have felt like the world is just about to end but these things are what passes for normalcy today we are still able to be reminded of what we know in our bones although it gets harder all the time something has gone terribly wrong that s what this book is about contradiction is a core concept in the humanities and the social sciences beside the classical ideas of logical or dialectical contradiction instances of lived contradiction and strategies of coping with it are objects of this study contradiction studies discuss the many ways in which explicit or implicit contradictions are negotiated in different political or cultural settings this volume collects articles that tackle the concept of contradiction practices of contradicting and lived contradictions from a number of relevant perspectives and assembles contributions from linguistics literary studies philosophy political science and media studies foreword on september 11 2001 muslim terrorists launched an attack on the united states to punish it for being what osama bin laden considered the land of the infidels in fact this attack was an attack on the entire western world and even more important it was an attack on western civilization the underlying objective being to take civilization back fourteen hundred years to a time of great glory for the islamic world in the wake of the attack by young muslim extremists which resulted in the collapse of the twin towers of the world trade center in manhattan our leaders attempted to assure us that the terrorists did not represent the entire muslim world it was said that they were the actions of a minority of an extreme fringe group it was and continues to be troubling however that we have heard very little strong condemnation coming from the supposed moderate muslim community who are these moderates why have they not spoken out more vociferously do they really exist when will they speak out with moral indignation indeed will they ever for most westerners islam is thought to be just another world religion equal to christianity and judaism but is this really the case upon closer study islam seems to be far different from the other two religions certainly no one would accuse muslims of being tolerant non judgmental non violent or peace loving while muslims have been allowed to build hundreds of mosques in western countries christian churches may only rarely be built if ever in muslim countries indeed in some muslim countries such as the sudan it is official government policy to demolish churches in addition it is difficult to believe that any world religion would advocate treating women as second class citizens and actually get away with it the concept of brotherhood in islam is strong the posture advocated by prophet mohammed in the koran toward non muslims however is to seek them out and annihilate them the phenomenon of suicide bombers is at once both pathetic and chilling on the one hand it is pathetic that young muslims are taught that they can gain entrance into paradise by taking peoples lives in such a gruesome manner carnal pleasures of course await the males upon entrance into heaven on the other hand it is chilling to think that there are any people living in the 21st century ready to teach and encourage such savagery what is the supposed theological justification for holding to such beliefs indeed is there any such thing in islam as theology in which the tenets of the faith are examined critically isnt it the case rather that the teachings of prophet mohammed are accepted literally and without question in his book the dawning of a new dark age mark alexander explores these questions and often finds disturbing answers unlike many authors on the subject mark actually lived and worked among muslims for many years so he has first hand knowledge of the religion and culture while on his tours of duty in the middle east mark immersed himself in islam and arabic culture studying the religion both from occidental and oriental perspectives he familiarized himself not only with the koran but also with the beliefs and attitudes of muslims in the street this experience has given him unusually clear insights into the aspirations of the muslim world marks conclusions will not be comforting to those who would like to believe that the long term threat to the west is limited to the aspirations of a few fundamentalist terrorists douglas kennedy ph d long march of islam is a reality the rising crescendo of jihadi warriors footfalls can be heard across india and many other countries religion based faultline conflicts are growing globally these are turbo driven by the exceptionally high rise in muslims population both in islamic and non islamic countries this book is about tomorrow and the day after an alert about mankind s future imperfect by 2025 muslims will comprise 30 percent of the world population that could destabilize many countries and regions because islam is a conquest oriented religion indian sub continent is likely to be one of the conflict zones as envisioned by pakistan s ideologue allama iqbal the islamists hope to restore the lost grandeur of islam on the strength of sharply rising numbers and the time tested strategy of jihad the author has analysed pakistan s role in the long march of islam and identified the regions likely to be worst affected is europe indeed uniting or instead falling apart as a result of anti immigrant prejudices a massive islamic influx and ancient intra european hatreds this innovative and engaging book explores this key question by examining the national and religious phobias and prejudices antipathies and sympathies stereotypes and heterotypes of europe west and east considering the sources of europe s culture based divide ray taras argues that the idea of two europes is grounded both in reality and myth the accession process that brought a dozen new members into the european union after 2004 highlighted the persisting gulf between old and new europe while many concrete borders between east and west were removed commercial legal passport regimes many remained absence of a single euro currency zone labor market and security community virtual borders too were invented or re imagined the postmaterialist inclusionary tolerant values supposedly found in old europe versus the materialist nationalistic xenophobic ones of new europe after reviewing the two europes contrasting historical legacies taras examines the eu institutions designed to overcome the historical european divide he considers the treaties political rhetoric citizen attitudes and literary narratives of belonging and separation that both bind and fray the fabric of europe throughout this interdisciplinary work provides a comprehensive hard hitting and unabashed review of how enlarged europe embraces contrasting understandings of its political home and of who belongs and who does not this fully revised second edition provides a detailed explanation of personality developmental dynamics taking into account mysticism and religious experience as psycho sociological phenomena and using empirical anchors ranging from the topical issue of arab jewish relationships to the divergent personalities of the founders of the hassidic movement these psychological dynamics are presented by way of the developmental and relationship experiences we have with the outside world alternations between conflict and a striving to revert back to earlier developmental phases at any given moment of our lives there is a gap between our desires for participation and our subjectively defined distance from our participatory aims this gap is called the tantalus ratio after the olympian demigod transcendental longings and quests are explored in their actual structuring of the human personality this new theory of personality also explores the mytho empirical manifestation of the normative s after world war ii leading western powers focused their attention on fighting the red menace communism today as terrorist activity is increasingly linked to militant islamism some politicians and scholars fear a green menace a pan islamic totalitarian movement fueled by monolithic religious ideology such fears have no foundation in history according to vartan gregorian in this succinct powerful survey of islam gregorian focuses on muslim diversity and division portraying the faith and its people as a mosaic not a monolith the book begins with an accessible overview of islam s tenets institutions evolution and historical role gregorian traces its origins and fundamental principles from muhammad s call to faith nearly 1 400 years ago to the defeat of the ottoman empire in world war i and the subsequent abolition of the caliphate he focuses particular attention on the intense struggle between modernists and traditionalists interaction between religion and nationalism and key developments that have caused bitter divisions among muslim nations and states the partitions of palestine the break up and islamization of pakistan the 1978 revolution in iran and the 1979 soviet invasion of afghanistan today islamist views range across the entire spectra of religious and political thought and islamism is anything but a unified movement while religious extremists have attempted to form a confederacy of like minded radicals in many countries much of the muslim population lives in relatively modern secular states gregorian urges westerners to distinguish between activist islamist parties which promote sometimes violently islam as an ideology in a theocratic state and islamic parties whose traditional members want their secular political systems to co exist with the moral principles of their religion gregorian emphasizes the importance of religion in today s world and urges states societies and intellectuals to intervene in order
